Introduction

The Multilateral Fund Secretariat is pleased to present a new logo for the Multilateral Fund for the Implementation of the Montreal Protocol.

The new logo is aimed at providing a distinct brand for the Multilateral Fund across various communication assets and applications on various social media platforms, ensuring their visual identity is recognizable, coherent and consistent. The logo presents a clear, simple and positive image of the Multilateral Fund.

The main purpose of these guidelines is to improve the overall visual identity of the Multilateral Fund and to ensure the uniformity of styles and design applied in the use of the logo.
Use of the Multilateral Fund logo

The Multilateral Fund logo will be used on a range of communication assets including publications, posters, banners, presentations, social media graphics and audio-visual materials. It will be used in all the six official UN languages. It is not meant for use on official documentation such as meeting documents.

Use of the Multilateral Fund logo by third parties requires the prior written consent of the Multilateral Fund Secretariat. Any use of the logo by third parties does not imply endorsement by the Multilateral Fund. The logo is not to be used for commercial purposes.
The icon combines key elements of the Multilateral Fund in a way that can be interpreted by an international audience.

The elements:

- The dotted world map representing all nations of the world
- An inner ring representing the protection that the atmosphere provides
- An outer ring representing the Ozone Layer and the dots that represent the three oxygen atoms that comprise the ozone molecule
The new logo combines the icon and the name of the Multilateral Fund in the United Nations official languages.

The name is in Roboto Bold font and the colour is 85% Cyan and 25% Magenta.
